Sometimes the biggest is also the best. At least that was the case in August when Sunrise Homes, the largest builder in Louisiana, earned Bonded Builders' honor for being among the very best builders nationwide. With much fanfare and celebration, Bonded Builders' Regional Sales Manager Larry Carpenter and Sales and Service Agent Steve Roth presented Larry Kornman, CEO of Sunrise Homes with the Spirit of Excellence Award.

The award recognizes a builder for their dedication and commitment to customer service. It denotes Sunrise Homes' consistently caring way they treat their customers both during and after the sale. "They do an excellent job in customer service," says Roth. "I know they are happy to have the special recognition shown to them and be able to share it with their customers."
